NEW Catholic Relief Services response to volcanic eruption in Guatemala

Guatemala experienced an eruption of Volcan de Fuego on Sunday, June 3. The country's most violent volcano eruption in more than a century affecting more than 1.7 million people. There are 3,000 people staying in temporary shelters out of the 12,000 who were evacuated from the area. Searches are continuing under difficult conditions, but there are fears that heavy rain could cause fresh landslides of volcanic mud. Catholic Relief Services is working with Caritas Escuintla to assess immediate needs across the affected communities. Prayers and financial contributions are needed for our Guatemalan sisters and brothers facing this tragedy. CRS has a prayer for those affected by the Fuego Volcano, in both English and Spanish. Donations for Guatemalan disaster relief can be made to Catholic Relief Services by visiting www.crs.org. For further information, please contact Marc McKimney at 510.768.3176 or mmckimney@cceb.org.
